All Florida Paper Acquires Distribution Center, Expands to 160,000 square feet

Medley, FL – All Florida Paper, a leading privately held distributor of foodservice, janitorial and chemical products announced on Monday, that they have finished the acquisition of a 52,000 square foot facility adjacent to their Medley distribution center for just over $4.3 million. With this acquisition, the company’s distribution centers now encompass over 160,000 square feet.

Armando Caceres, the President of All Florida Paper, said that “we feel that through the acquisition of this additional distribution center, we have placed the company in an ideal position to handle the growth that we expect over the next decade.” He continued saying that “the new facility will be used primarily for bulk storage inventory.”
